

Small Checking Accounts.

No one is denied the convenience of a checking account with Lincoln County National Bank, because his transactions are small. It is the policy of this bank to encourage the small depositor, because it sees in each one the possibility of the large account of the future. The officers of this bank are accessible to those who call for the transaction of business, and are glad to extend a welcome to new depositors.

Last Call on Low Shoes

If you live until next summer you will have to have Shoes. If we have what you want now in our shelves, it will be a good investment.

The NETTLETON Low Shoes are $5.00, $6.00 and $6.50 the world over--no less. The few pairs left you can get at $4.00.

WALK-OVERS, the most popular of all Shoes--they speak for themselves. The prices are stamped on each bottom, $3.50, $4 and $4.50 the pair. We have about 50 pairs, in all leathers, at $2.50 for the $3.50 ones; $2.75 for the $4 shoes, and $3 for the $4.50 pairs.

They are all new 1912 models. If that isn't a good investment, then don't buy them; if it is, then get you a pair quick.

THE COUNTRY FAIR.

Oh, the city life has its joys no doubt.
Its steam heated mansions and halls;
Its business deals and its automobiles,
Its theaters, suppers and balls;
Its extravagant toys and its messenger boys,
Its buildings way up in the air;
But where is the street that can ever compete
With the old-fashioned country fair!

Then it's hey ho! And it's won't you go
And see what the country fair can show!
The Plymouth Rocks and the Leghorns, too;
The browsing sheep for all to view;
The golden wheat, the yellow corn;
The ribbons that everywhere adorn;
The monster hogs with the curly tails;
The Jersey cows and the brimming pails;
The luscious pumpkins laid in rows;
The mild-eyed horses, patient, kind;
The frolicsome colts that trot behind;
The apples, pears and smelly pears;
With all the fruits the orchard bears;
And bowls of berries, black and red;
And then the band, with martial tread,
In silver braid and scarlet coats,
Playing as if to split their throats--
Ah! what's on earth that can compare
With the genuine old-fashioned country fair!

Oh, a city life has its bunco games,
And its fortunes made while you wait;
Its frenzied finance and its ceaseless dance
Round the Goddess of Gold and Hate;
Its green-goods men and its gamblers' den,
Its gleam and its glitter and glare;
But what does it know of the glorious show
At the old-fashioned country fair!

Then it's hey ho! And won't you go
And see what the country fair can show!
The plates of biscuit, crisp and brown;
The finest rolls from every town;
And every conceivable kind of cake
The same as your mother used to make;
Fruit cake, pound cake, sponge cake, tarts,
Twisted and crimped and shaped in hearts;
Jelly cake, silver cake, gold cake, too;
Cakes of every kind and hue,
Of every name and shape and size,
Flanked by half a thousand pies;
Sauces and catchups by the score;
Jams and preserves from door to door,
With quilts and counterpanes, stitched and sewed,
And tidies and scarfs by the wagon load.
While the judges with solemn, portentous face;
Go strolling on from place to place.
And chat and smile and laugh and roar
At every joke--then eat some more--
Ah! What's on earth that can compare
With the genuine old-fashioned country fair!

Oh, a city life has its trolley cars,
Its policemen clad in blue;
Its electric lights and its dazzling sights;
Its church and its high-priced pew;
But there's many a night when you lie awake,
And think of its trouble and care;
And ah! if you knew what was wisest for you,
You'd go back to the country fair.

Then it's hey ho! And won't you go
And see what the country fair can show!
For the horses race, and they run their best;
And nobody ever wants to rest;
And you eat peanuts and popcorn balls;
And forget that the market rises and falls;
And you bring your lunch and sit in the shade;
And you watch the soldiers on parade;
And you pat your foot to the march of the band;
And you meet your friends, and shake their hand;
And go way up in the big balloon.
Till it looks like you'll drop into heaven soon;
And the sun comes down all gold and red;
And the last good-nights have all been said
And the crowd has dwindled to just a few;
And life seems so happy and sweet to you--
Ah! there's nothing on earth that can compare
With the genuine old-fashioned country fair.

We believe it will be compelled to admit it along about the 10th of November also.

Mr. Hawkins Bishop and wife of Tunkawa, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bishop, of Newton, Kas., have returned home after a pleasant visit to their father, Mr. Josiah Bishop, of the West End. Both of these ex-Lincoln boys are doing splendidly in their adopted homes, and were given a most hearty greeting on their short visit.

A Kidney Remedy Advertisement Brought Great Happiness

I take pleasure in stating that I have used Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root that I was greatly benefitted by the same and have used it in my family. I had a son, when quite young he suffered from bladder or kidney affliction. I called in my physician, he attended him but did him no good. Almost by accident I noticed an advertisement about the curative properties of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. I procured a bottle and gave it to him according to directions. It cured him of what we thought was almost impossible and the same with others of my family. I have such strong faith in Swamp-Root that I have never done without it in my family since the wonderful cure of my son as well as myself. I recommend it to all who suffer from kidney or bladder troubles and I am led to believe that it is one of the best medicines for the purpose for which it is used, that has ever been discovered.

This is my experience from the use of Swamp-Root. Wishing the promoters of this wonderful medicine a large sale to the suffering public, I am Yours respectfully,
W. H. McAFEE,
